A Horse Of My Very Own™

Create Your Own!

Customizing Your Breyer Models

All you need is a Breyer model, acrylic paints and your imagination!

Is your dream horse a golden palomino or a spotted appaloosa? Is she a strawberry roan or a stunning dapple grey? All of these colors are possible with the paints and full color instructions in our painting kits. Each kit includes white, black, yellow ochre, burnt umber and burnt sienna so that the rainbow of horse colors is possible! Acrylics are water soluble, so clean up is easy too.

You can also add Mohan Manes and Tails and Horseshoes for an even more realistic effect!

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Kismet

You've just brought home the newest addition to your stable! Now the big question: what will his or her name be?

Some names are inspired by color, and a black horse could have words such as ebony, raven, ink, shadow, night or jet in his name. Use a thesaurus to find uncommon words: breeze, zephyr and sirocco mean different types of "wind." An Arabian filly might be named after her mother: "Bint (daughter of) Sahara." An Indian pony might carry the tribe's name: Cherokee, Cheyenne, Sioux or Lakota. A mustang might reflect his wild surroundings and Spanish ancestry: Sagebrush, Thunderbolt, Rojo (red), Blanco (white). Ponies sometimes have fun food names such as Milkshake, Oreo or Pop Tart. The possibilities are endless! Keep a list of names you like and soon it will be easy to find the perfect name! Kismet means destiny; Kismet is destined to be mine!
